BGD - Black Gangster Disciples – gang originated in Chicago and is making inroads into the south. Sometimes called Folk or Folk Nation. The main symbol of the BGD is the Star of David and the symbols on the right corners are “crosses.” Sklol reference was found on the internet many times – no exact explanation of what it means. Although sometimes used in sentence to refer to school. All graffiti pictured is located in the neighborhood of Roselawn, city of Cincinnati OH. Photos taken October 6, 2007
