

ROSELAWN COMMUNITY COUNCIL MEETING OF MEMBERS MINUTES
OCTOBER 12, 2006

7:30 Barb Kley called the meeting to order. There was recognition of outgoing trustees and officers Alicia

Boggs, Tamara Johnson, Dan Joyner, Ruby Metts, Nancy Sunnenberg, and Michael Watson.

Minutes were approved as amended to indicate Susan Glas as the presenter of CPOP's report to the membership.

Welcome to guests and visitors.

SPECIAL REPORTS

Cincinnati Fire Department-Lt. Duncan of District 2 provided furnace and fire safety tips. Smoke detector and CO2 alarms are available from the city for homeowners' use if requested.

CINCINNATI RECREATION COMMISSION

Sandy Richardson described services provided by the Bond Hill Recreation Center and welcomed Roselawn residents to participate. Fliers provided for upcoming activities at the center.

CPOP

Susan Glas encouraged members to write the police department encouraging reinstatement of neighborhood officers. They are also working with landlords to discourage littering. She announced the next meeting to be held on October 17, 2006 at 6:30. If the substation is unavailable, a sign will be on the door announcing the meeting location.

INVEST IN NEIGHBORHOODS

Chris Burch and Erin McDermott from Xavier University spoke regarding increasing political clout of communities and increasing voter turnout for the November 7 election.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

NSP-Tricia Davis presented the proposed 2007 budget for viewing. It will be voted upon at the Nov.9 RCC meeting.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT-Mary Donaldson reported that the fall edition of the newsletter has been sent out and requested that items of interest be sent to her for the next publication. The RCC website is being updated.

BEAUTIFICATION, LITTER-Bob Ingberg reported that the community clean-up day is October 21, 2006 and requested more volunteers for this project. It will be held before the Roselawn Day of Fun. There are also Wandering Jew plants available at the wishing well for individuals who wish to take some home for transplanting.

Gary Moffit relayed information that litter pick-up requests can be done on the City of Cincinnati website. Individuals can send the information to him or they can do it personally.

ROSELAWN BUSINESS ASSOCIATION-Barb Kley relayed that the new co-chairs are Jesse Whitaker (Dukester) and Dorothea Miller (Buckpower).

OTHER BUSINESS:

Sign-up sheets were passed for volunteers to work two hour shifts at the Roselawn Day of fun.

There was a request that members submit their e-mail addresses in order to be notified of Roselawn events. It was requested that people volunteer to phone those with no e-mail addresses. Susan Glas volunteered to do calling.

Concerns were voiced regarding the lack of police presence in Roselawn and at the RCC meetings. Charles Houston of CPOP urged neighbors to contact him as well as the police about neighborhood disturbances, His number is 236-7216. He also urged residents to attend meetings with police at District 4 police station to voice concerns. These meetings are held on the 4th Wednesday of month, the next one being 10/24/06.

Steve Kirschner stated opinions regarding issues in the November 7 election.

Questions were raised regarding the status of Carlisle's old liquor license and the space previously held by Vito's. Answers to these questions are not known at the present time.

MEETING ADJOURNED-8:49 P.M.